

RACISM

The Academic Staff Executive Committee and the Academic Staff Assembly are extremely concerned about the continuing incidents of racial prejudice within the university community. We find these incidents intolerable and a threat to the freedoms of all.

We resolve to make the implementation of the goals of the Madison Plan an ongoing and integral part of the shared governance process. We ask all members of the academic staff to exercise sensitivity and to pursue these goals diligently in cooperation with the faculty, classified staff and students.