NOMINATING COMMITTEE (NC)
CANDIDATE STATEMENTS

LINDA ALSTON

I work as an Editor in the Office of University Publications where I've been employed for almost six years. I previously worked in the UW-Extension HELP office as an LTE advisor. While this is my first effort to get involved in governance/policy development, I have been the ASA alternate representative for District 79 for about two years. I am also a member of the Campus Communicators group and worked with that group's Language Review Task Force ad hoc committee to develop and produce the publication "A Guide to Bias-Free Communications: A Reference for Preparing Official University Publications."

With regard to academic staff governance/policy development, pay equity and job security are of special interest to me. As a woman, the issue of pay equity hits close to home, and I've seen enough academic staff personnel not renewed for wholly specious reasons to want to work for job security for all academic staff members.

My qualifications for serving on the Nominating Committee are sincerity, a real desire to get involved in academic staff governance/policy making, and a great sense of humor. I work well with others and will bring insight and a common-sense approach to the committee. I ask that you accept nomination to the committee and support me in my efforts to serve. Thank you.

PAUL JELLE

Paul is out of town and was unable to prepare a statement prior to the mailing. His statement will be mailed to you the week of 4/3 - 4/7.

GEOFF MERRILL

I am an Editor at the Campus Assistance Center, and have been District 8 Representative for six years. Since filling a vacated seat on the Nominating Committee, I have found the experience to be a largely enjoyable and fulfilling one, primarily due to the willingness of many Academic Staff to share their skills and time to help the Academic Staff prosper as a vital component of the UW-Madison community. Under Barry Robinson's able leadership, we have successfully recruited numerous staff to stand for election or appointment to posts in committees, the Assembly, ASEC, advisory boards, etc. I would be happy to continue in this role.

JUDY PETERSON

I am a Researcher in Bacteriology. I have been an academic staff member since 1971 (initially a research specialist). I was on the Academic Staff Executive Committee (ASEC) for five years and have served on many other committees including CALS Equity Committee and CALS Building Committee. I continue to be interested in seeing that academic staff are fully involved in the governance of the institution as well as that at the unit level. I am also committed to ensuring that the system and campus administration, government agencies, students and alums and the private sector understand and appreciate the many professional roles and responsibilities of the academic staff.

RE: Candidate Statement for Nominating Committee

DATE: April 3, 1995

Following is the Nominating Committee candidate statement for Paul Jelle. His statement was not included in your Assembly packet which was mailed to you last week.

PAUL JELLE

The Standing Committee for Nominations carries out an important function for academic staff governance. I have been an employee of the university for 20 years, 17 of them as an academic staff member. There have been many opportunities to work/associate with various individuals at this great university and I am the richer for it. I would hope this experience would be of benefit to the committee. I have previously served on this committee and I am familiar with its role and responsibilities.
