

Resolution on a Dedicated Funding Stream for UW System

Whereas, taxpayer support for UW System has been cut by $696 million since 2011;

Whereas, great fluctuation in taxpayer support creates difficulties in long-term planning for campuses, parents and students;

Whereas, a dedicated and predictable funding stream for UW System would allow families and students to plan for tuition rates; and

Whereas, a dedicated and predictable funding stream for UW System would allow for long-range budget planning at each campus;

Therefore be it resolved, the UW-Madison Academic Staff Assembly supports the renewal of the state compact with higher education through a dedicated funding stream for UW System.
