Additional Information for CASI:

The L&S Committee on Academic Staff Issues (CASI) is sponsoring a free brownbag seminar on Early/Mid-Career Retirement Planning and Benefit Maximization for Academic Staff. Choices you make today can help provide for your tomorrow. Whether you are new to state employment or are mid-way in your career, learn how strategies you employ now as a UW-Madison employee may better prepare you for future retirement.

Presentation topics include: an overview of the WRS, ETF, and SWIB; how the WRS retirement benefit is calculated; WRS account options should you leave the University prior to age 55; a review of the supplemental retirement plans available to University employees; how your sick leave account works for you after retirement; information on no- and low-cost employee services; and money-saving tips to maximize your UW insurance benefits.

When: Wednesday, April 20, 2016, 12:00-1:00pm

Where: 21 North Park Street, Rooms 1106/1108

Presenter: Chris Calkins/UW-Madison Benefits Services, Office of Human Resources

All L&S academic staff are invited to attend. No registration is necessary.
